Sir,

With reference to your letter No.G.9022/G.M.199-13-34 of the 8th May 1914, calling for certain information regarding the Proprietor etc., of the newly started Kanarese -- Journal entitled Kuruvijaya, I have the honor to submit herewith copy of Police Inspector H.Subba Rao's report dated 11th May 1914, which furnishes all the information called for by Government. It will be seen therefrom that the Proprietor, Editor and Publisher of the paper is one Mr.M.N.Lingappa, and that its printer is one S.Narasimhaiya of the City(Mudraikshara Sala) Press, and that both of them are of good character.In this connection, I beg to invite your kind reference to Government order No.G.3311/G.M.135-13-9 dated 5th November 1913, wherein the Government have been pleased to grant permission to the said Mr.Lingappa to edit and publish the said Kuru Vijaya.

2. It is not clear whether a report under clause 4 of Government order No.G.61-70/G.M.135-11-77 dated 4th July 1912 is due also with regard to this paper, which was declared to be of a non-political character.

Re. The prospectus of the newly started Kannada

Journal entitled "Kannadiga"

SUBMITTED:-

I beg to state that I made enquiries re - the name, Race, and antecedents etc., of the Proprietor, Publisher and Editor of the newly started canarese Journal called Kuruvijaya, for which permission has been granted by Government in Proceedings No.G.3311/G.M.135-139 dated 5th November 1913.

The Proprietor, Publisher and Editor of Kuru Vijaya is one Mr.M.N.Lingappa son of Nagappa, age 36, Kurubar Caste, residing in Kunchigarpete in the limits of Uppapete Station. He is a scent merchant in Bangalore City. He has studied English as far as 3rd Form and then discontinued. He has not passed any examination either in Kanarese or English. He owns a house of his own in Ballapurpete(Door No.2) but he has mortgaged the same to one Mannaji Rao for Rs.400/-. It is ascertained that some of the leading Kurubars residing in Bangalore City induced and encouraged Mr.Lingappa to start a journal in the name of their community and to edit news re their religion etc. and so he undertook to publish this journal.

The editor has given a declaration before the City Magistrate on 22nd August 1913, a copy is herein enclosed for perusal stating that this paper will be printed at the Raja Rajeswari Press, Halasoor Pete, Bangalore City, but now there is a -- change in the printer. It is printed at the City Press Door No 3, Jamakhana Pete road.

The editor explains that as the Printer of the Raja Rajeswari press did not agree to the conditions as was settled previously, he has to give the work to the City Press and for -- which he has taken permission from the City Magistrate and that he has given a declaration before the City Magistrate on 15th April 1914. A copy of the declaration is herewith submitted for perusal.

This weekly Kanarese journal Kuruvijaya was first started on 20th April 1914. It is printed in the City MudraksharaSala Press which is situated in JamkhanPete Door No.3, the name of the printer being one Mr.S.Narasimhahaya son of Votaliah of of Sowrastra caste, age 28, residing in 29, Carpet street, Bangalore City. It is ascertained that this Narasimhaya owns two houses in Bangalore City and some landed property in Kengeri limits. He knows a little English and Kanarese. It would -- appear that he bought this press from the Manager of the -- Standard office for Rs.260/- about 6 years ago and that he has been doing some Job work. From enquiries made it is ascertained that Mr.M.N.Lingappa and S.Narasimhya bear good character.

He is a scent merchant, has studied upto Third Form and owns a house in Ballapurpete, door No. 2 which is mortgaged to one Mannaji Rao for Rs.400/-. He is reported to be of good character.

2. The journal in question is printed in the city Mudrakshar sala Press in Jamkhanpete, door No.3, by one S. Narasimayya, who is 28 years old and is the son of Votaliah of Sowrastra caste — residing in door No.29, Carpet street, Bangalore city. It is reported that Narasimayya owns two houses in Bangalore city and also some landed property in Kengeri and that he bears a good character.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. G.491/G.M.199-13-51 of the 16th July 1914, calling for further information regarding the newly started Journal "Kuruvijaya", I have the honour to state that it is reported that its circulation on the 29th June 1914 was 265 copies among subscribers in the moffusil, and 235 copies free in the city. The Journal was started on the 20th April 1914, and it is too soon to form an opinion regarding its tone and influence. But so far, no unfavourable reports have been heard. Mr. S.Narasimhaiya, the Proprietor of the City Press (Mudrakshara Sala), Bangalore City, has given before the City Magistrate, Bangalore, on the 15th April 1914 a declaration under Act XXV of 1867, that he is the printer of the weekly paper "Kuruvijaya".
